

Czech Republic – interesting facts

Interesting fact: Skoda, a local car manufacturer, is one of only four automobile trademarks that can claim a more than 100-year-old history. The company was founded by Mr. Emil Skoda. Skoda means "pity" in Czech. 	Weird fact: The Old Kladbury Horse is considered a Living Work of Art and listed on UNESCO's World Heritage List. It's the only horse bred for ceremonial purposes at royal courts.
Random fact: Czech pucks do not leave black smudges. The exact formula of the Gufex pucks, manufactured in a Moravian village, is a secret. 	Useless fact: The Czech Republic has the largest network of signposted footpaths in the world. As of 2002, more than 38,000 kilometers of paths have been signposted.
Fun fact: The first sugar cubes were made in the Czech town of Dacice in 1841. 	Educational fact: The word "robot" is Czech. It first appeared in a drama written by Czech playwright and journalist Karel Čapek called R. U. R. (Rossum's Universal Robots). It was actually his artist brother Josef though who came up with the word.
